JUDGE LYNCH.

The lynching of a negro brute at Marion again calls attention to the necessity for reforming the code as the only practical and sure method of suspending the operations of Judge Lynch. No one will have the hardi- hood to deny that public sentiment sustains such acts as the Marion lynching. Nine out of every ten men will openly stand by it. The most sacred thing in human keeping—a woman's honor—must be preserved, and avenged when violated.

Lynching is the outgrowth of a belief that the delays of the law are in themselves a partial miscarriage of justice. When a law becomes obnoxious to any considerable majority of the people, that law will be a dead letter. When the whole body of the law falls, in popular estimation, to fit a certain case, the community is apt to decide its own law to fit the particular case under consideration.

The next legislature will do well to consider amendments to the code already suggested by THE TIMES, empowering the judge of the county in which an outrage is committed to at once summons venires of grand and petit juries, and on the decision of the first proceed to try the accused before the second. The court of appeals should, if necessary, be brought into line for the immediate execution of justice, and the execution should follow at once. This will stop lynching. No other way.

AFTER THE CONVENTION.

A Strong Letter Sent to Each Member of the Executive Committee.

The committee appointed by the Central Democratic Club at its meeting last Thursday evening to advocate the holding of the next State Democratic convention in Roanoke has directed the following letter to each member of the State Democratic executive committee:

DEAR SIR: The Central Democratic Club, of Roanoke, desire to emphasize their earnestness in urging on you, as a member of the State central Democratic committee, the advantages of holding the Democratic State convention in this city. We have a most charming city, the hospitality of which will be extended to the people. We have ample hotel accommodation for all who will attend. Our new and handsome opera house will afford sufficient hall room for the sessions of the convention. The ease of access to the city from every part of the State is a great consideration, as well as its geographical location.

It has been five years since a Democratic convention has been held here, and since that time we have grown from 10,000 to 25,000 people, with advantages commensurate with our growth. We trust that you will exert your influence to have Roanoke selected as the place to hold the State convention, feeling assured that it will meet with the hearty approval of a large majority of the convention. Respectfully, etc.

W. P. DUPUY,
JAMES S. GROVES,
S. HAMILTON GRAVES,

What a Good Cotton Factory Can Do.

From the Darlington, S. C., News.
The annual meeting of the Darlington Manufacturing Company was held in the office of the president on Thursday. The report of the president showed the affairs of the company to be in a flourishing condition. The following interesting facts gleaned from the report will give an idea of the immense work done by the factory during the past year. The number of yards of shirting manufactured is 5,000,000; number of pounds of yarn, 375,000; number of bales of cotton consumed (all of which was bought at this market) 4,800, or 2,500,000 pounds, at a cost of about $175,000; cost of fuel (also entirely expended at this place), over $10,000; salaries paid for labor, $52,000; amount paid for freight, $15,000. It will thus be seen that the factory put in circulation in town during last year $337,000. The company declared a dividend of 7 per cent., which, however, represents just half the net earnings for the year. The remainder is retained for a reserve fund, as has been the custom for several years.

To Attend the Davis Reinterment.
The William Waits Camp of Confederate Veterans held a meeting Friday night to make arrangements to attend the obsequies of President Jefferson Davis at Richmond May 31. Arrangements have been completed by which all members of the camp and others who join them may obtain a round trip rate of $5.40. It is hoped that as many survivors as possible of the "Lost cause" will take advantage of this last opportunity to pay a loving tribute to the great chieftain.

He May Come Back a Major.
Capt. Bird leaves to-night for Richmond on business connected with the Cushman Iron Company. On his return he will go to Waynesboro to attend the meeting of the officers of the Second Regiment, Virginia Volunteer Militia, for the election of colonel, major and adjutant.

A GRAND BIBLICAL SPECTACLE.

Solomon, His Temple, and the Queen of Sheba.

The Enquirer, the Commercial Gazette and other leading papers, both German and English, of Cincinnati, are prolific in their praises of this new and most impressive of all spectacles, which, at an expense that would seem fabulous, the enterprising management of John Robinson's Great World's Exposition produce this year in connection with their myriad other attractions. There is no sense so vivid, so lasting and so conclusive as the sense of seeing, and however studiously we may search the Scriptures or other sacred history, the ideas that we may form and the impressions we may receive concerning the patriarchs and sages, and the scenes, incidents and events consequent to their time, can be but fractionary and imperfect.

To have reproduced these personages and events and placed with scenicographic effort before you to hear Solomon reutter his wise and prophetic words; to see in person Sheba's illustrious queen and the pomp and circumstance of her surroundings; to view the great temple of Solomon, not by description, but by actual inspection; to witness personally the sumptuous and resplendent festivals of the great Solomon's court—these are the inestimable privileges which the John Robinson's Great World's Exposition accords its patrons in connection with the great circus, the menagerie and the royal Roman hippodrome. The spectacle of Solomon, his temple and the Queen of Sheba will be displayed here June 1.

THE COLUMBIAN BAZAAR.

The Various Circles of King's Daughters Unite in a Worthy Charity.

The various circles of King's Daughters of this city interested in the Home for the Sick have all united to give a Columbian bazaar for the benefit of that worthy charity on the 23rd, 24th and 25th of this month. The bazaar will be held in the new building of Mr. S. W. Jamison on Jefferson street near the Terry building. This building is now just being completed, and is wonderfully adapted for this purpose, as there are two large connecting rooms on the lower floor, and a large crowd can be accommodated at once. Music from the Machine Works Orchestra will help to enliven the scenes. America, Spain and Italy will be represented in national colors, costumes and products. America will represent herself in 1491, 1776 and 1893, and wares pertaining to each age will be sold. From the colonial tea table very dainty refreshments will be furnished, and at the lunch counter more substantial brands will be found. In the dining room ice cream, cake and strawberries will be served. There will be sweets for the sweet from Huyle's own store, real soda water and even cigars, a luncheon of deviled crabs and delicacies will be served each day at noon. The details have not all been thoroughly arranged, but there will be a fuller account later.

Practice Game of Baseball.

A practice game of baseball was played yesterday afternoon between a team representing the Roanoke Athletic Club and a picked nine from the various baseball organizations in the city on the old grounds on South Jefferson street, in which the score stood 9 to 4 in favor of the R. A. C. The batteries were for R. A. C., Walshall and Riley, and the picked nine Thomas and Greer. The rolling and grading of the new grounds will be finished to-morrow.

The Other Fifty Lights Nearly Ready.

The management of the Roanoke Electric Light and Power Company expect to have the remaining fifty lights in place and operation by next Wednesday night. The additional sixteen lights that have been ordered by Council will be erected as soon as possible.

Senator Daniel Selected.

Senator John W. Daniel has been invited by Colonel A. S. Buford to be the orator at the World's Fair on Virginia day, August 9. This occasion will be a great day in the history of the exposition, and there is no speaker who would please an Old Dominion audience so much as Senator Daniel.

Funeral of Little Mary Martin.

The funeral of little Mary Ellen Martin will take place this afternoon from the residence of her parents at 606 Patton avenue n. e. at 3 o'clock, and will be conducted by Rev. Father J. W. Lynch. The interment will be at St. Andrew's Catholic Cemetery.

The Cricket Game Yesterday.

The cricket game yesterday afternoon between E. Hughes' and Jas. Devon's eleven resulted in a win for the latter by the score of 49 to 41. E. Hughes' side batted first to the bowling of Devon and Leigh, and thanks to Rogers, Graves, Buddo and Howling, made the respectable total of 41. Devon's side then went in and by free cricket Leigh and Devon, between them, piled up 41 runs before they were separated. The remainder of the side gave little trouble and were all dismissed for eight runs, the game resulting as above.
